

I Can't Wait To Go Home

Lyrics

When I close my eyes in sleep
And when I take my final breath
Lord, may the angels worship Thee
For I have victory in death

I'll join the throng of witnesses
Who testify of His pure grace
Then heaven's song I'll sing for Him
I can't wait to go Home

Sleep shall blow the veil away
And Jesus' throne will be revealed
Where broken hearts and silent pain
Will, by the Wounded One, be healed

There'll be no sorrow on that day
No lonely roads or sad goodbyes
The King will wipe our tears away
I can't wait to go Home

bridge

From a distance even now I hear
The song of angels and saints
"Holy, holy" is the joyous creed
Of both the small and the great

No regrets, no sin or stain
Can follow where my Jesus leads
For every debt my Savior paid
And I will evermore be free

I'll join the throng of witnesses
Who testify of His pure grace
Then heaven's song I'll sing for Him
I can't wait to go Home

bridge

From a distance even now I hear
The song of angels and saints
"Holy, holy" is the joyous creed
Of both the small and the great

release

Holy, holy God Almighty
Hallelujah! Give Him praise!

I can't wait to go Home