

THE CROSS

© 2005 Chris Clough

r102505

God of God and Son of man
You loved with passion and humility
Your tender heart, O King of kings,
Concealed your crown to show your love for me

And I'm amazed
At what you've done for me
The price you paid
Has set the sinner free

chorus

The cross, the cross
Stained with blood but wonderful
The cross, the cross
Where the Righteous One
Came to seek and to save what was lost
The cross, the cross

No one took your life from you
You laid it down to buy us back again
Beloved Son, God's precious child
Became a curse reversing every sin

And so despised
Rejected and alone
You saved my life
By laying down your own

chorus

bridge

Cross of healing, cross of awe
Fountain of God's unconditional love
Where the Father's heart bids the thirsty come
And forgiveness flows
All because of the blood on the cross

Stained with blood but wonderful
The cross, the cross
Where the Righteous One came to find the lost
The cross, the cross
Where the Father turned away from the Son
The cross, the cross
The cross